

As the Day Begins

©Common Cup Company
 Arr. ©2000 Andrew Donaldson

1 E A B7 E G#m

Light slips in at Hearts to love and
 Shreds of light chased
 La - la-la*...

(* or instrumental solo)

4 A E A E A B7

break of day;
 hands to give;
 by the dawn

laugh-ter fol - lows
 eyes to see where dis - ap - pear in

on the way,
 Spir - it lives,
 blaze of sun;

7 E G#m A E A B7

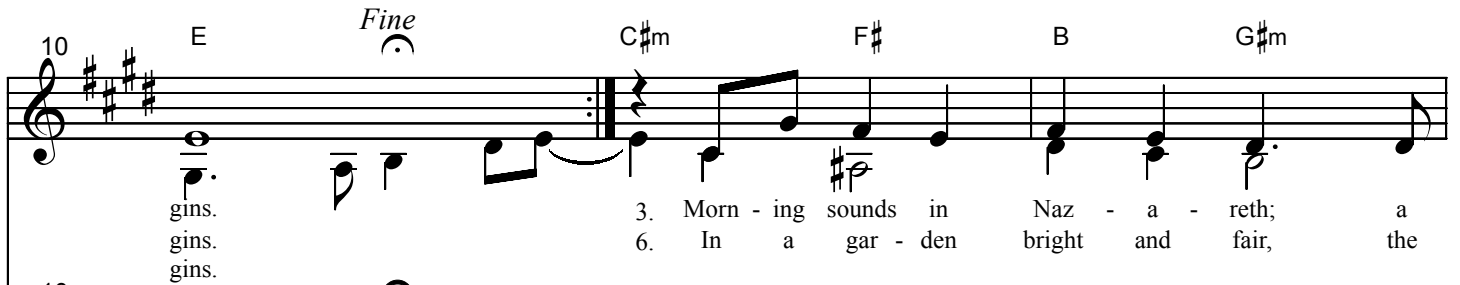

songs to sing and words to pray,
 breath of God our souls re-ceive
 Our God calls us once a - gain

as the day be -
 as the day be -
 as the day be -

7. He is made the truer dawn,
 rising brighter than the sun.
 Come and join his morning song
 as the day begins!

As the Day Begins -2

10 E Fine C#m F# B G#m

gins.
gins.
gins.

3. Morn - ing sounds in Naz - a - reth; a
6. In a gar - den bright and fair, the

13 C#m F# B C#m F#

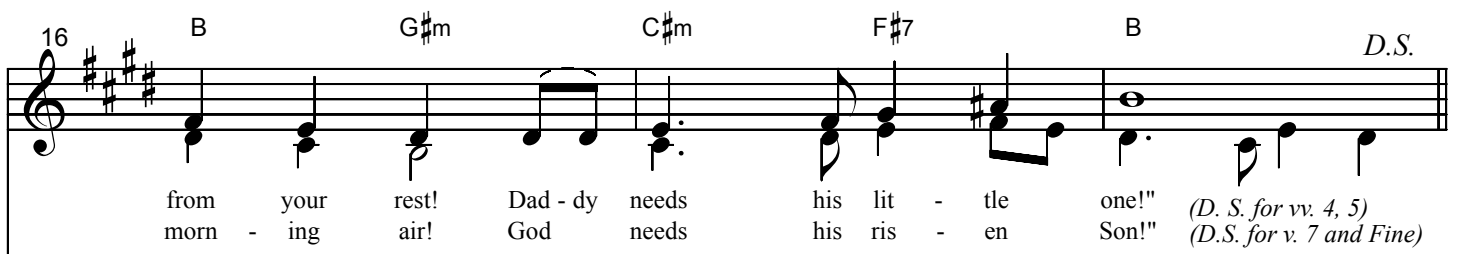

wom - an wakes her son. name: "Come, my child; rise the wind calls out your name: "Wake and breathe the 13

16 B G#m C#m F#7 B D.S.

from your rest! Dad - dy needs his lit - tle one!" (D.S. for vv. 4, 5) morn - ing air! God needs his ris - en Son!" (D.S. for v. 7 and Fine)

16

