

Like an Eagle

©Common Cup Company
 Arr. ©1999 Andrew Donaldson

1 C F/C C Cmaj7 F/C

Like an) Eag-le in the clear morn - ing skies,
 Like a) Ship in the path of a storm,
 Like a) Child dream - ing our way,
 Like a) Love we en - coun - ter and share

6 F C Cmaj7 F/C

tak - ing wing on the wind's eas - y tides, rid - ing waves that the night - winds have formed,
 em-brac-ing years when our work is our play.
 lift - ing hearts to in - clined to des - pair,

10 F/E Dm Dm/C G/B

grace - ful her dance in the sun,
 dar - ing the sea's rise and fall;
 How swift - ly the mo - ment is gone;
 sur - pris - ing the joy of its glance,

14 G Dm G

ho - ly the cry of her song.
 ho - ly the strain of her sails.
 ho - ly the learn - ing that's done.
 sor - row gives way to live's dance.

Like an Eagle -2

18 E7 Am G

Lov-ing God, our souls long to be hold the Lov-ing God, our souls long to hold Lov-ing God, our souls long to hold the

23 Am G E7

joy - ful and fear - less and free, like an ea - gle to sur - strength to re - sist and be bold, like a ship to age - less and dar - ing and the old, seek - ing grace from the gifts of the young and the old, like a love born to

27 C7 F G7 To Coda

rise so high, like an ea - gle to rise. sail. rise. soar.
 vive an - y gale, like a ship born to young and the wise, like a child born to o - pen each door, like a love born to

32 D.S. al Coda

Like a soar so high, like an ea - gle to soar.
 Like an

After v. 4, Repeat v. 1,
 then to Coda