

When We Have No Words

Gordon Light

Gordon Light

1 $\text{♩} = 92$ Gently 2 G D 3 Em C 4 G D

There's a song we can sing that can lift our hearts, when we have no words to
 When we have no words, we can still find ground in the shadows where silence (instrumental)

5 C 6 G D 7 Em C 8 G D

pray. There's a song we can sing in the deep-est dark, when we are weak and adwells; The Spi-rit's voice wells up with-in, and words don't mat-ter at 9 C 10 D G 11 Am Em 12 C G

fraid. We can o-pen ourselves to the sil-ent place where the Spi-rit is breath-ing with-all. Let the sil-ence be our prayer, our song, when we have noth-ing to ... (Voices) Lis-ten, Lis-ten there's a mel-o-o- dy, that gath-ers in all our

13 D 14 D G 15 Am Em 16 C G 17 D %

in, Let her gen-tle cries rise up in grace, in the qui-et our souls start to sing. There' a say, Be still, be still, my heart, my soul, let the fear-ful-ness give way to the tears, and bears our long-ings end-less-ly when all the words dis-a-pear; The song we can sing that can lift our hearts, when we have no words to pray.

18 G D 19 Em C 20 G D 21 G 22

 song that is sung in the deep-est dark, when we have no words to pray.
 Spir-it sings in the deep-est dark, when we have no words to pray.

D.S. al Fine